

The Bluegrass Association of North Dakota (B.A.N.D.) Presents

KILLDEER BLUEGRASS MUSIC DAY

A call for bluegrass musicians, young and old, experienced and brand new, to gather in Killdeer, ND on Saturday, August 27 to share and experience, first-hand, the joys and benefits of homemade string band music.

Bluegrass jamming is playing and singing together informally in a circle.

Killdeer Lions Park 600 Brew Street
If the weather is bad, we are at:
High Plains Cultural Center in Killdeer.
470 5th Avenue SW

Saturday, August 27

Schedule:

Bluegrass instruments*:
fiddle,
mandolin,
guitar, banjo,
upright bass,
Dobro guitar

1:00 pm Overview of Bluegrass Music for everyone

1:30 pm Introduction to bluegrass jamming

2:15 – 4:00 Open Jam session

4:00 pm “Learn a Bluegrass Song” Workshop

5:00 pm Bluegrass Concert: Monroe Doctrine

6:00 pm Potluck Supper

7:00 pm ?? More jamming (of course)

Sunday, August 28
Bluegrass Goes to Church
Hope Free Lutheran Church

9:30 am MDT

at Lions Park

If the weather chases us indoors:
470 5th Ave SW Killdeer, ND

For more information call
John Andrus at 701-721-8296

*All bluegrass instruments are acoustic-only